The dealer plates had the writing 'DAEWOO' in a black background with the phone number, a black line going through either side with the number plate ID under the number plate. When AA tested the Nexia 1.5 GLi in September 1995, they liked it due to its dealer satisfaction but criticized for being dull. In conclusion they said the Nexia is an ultra-sensible family car, with a hassle-free aftersales package and being good value for money.

Daewoo LeMans - Wikipedia

Daewoo devised a clever sales package that included a unique 'no-haggle' price, a comprehensive warranty and impressive standard equipment on every car. Buyers responded enthusiastically to the 'new deal' but of the two models offered, it was the smaller Nexia that was the more popular.
