In order to explain the outbreak of any conflict, it is first necessary to have a theory of how war occurs. Theories of war are absent or underdeveloped in most theories of international relations, which, despite popular belief, undermines the explanatory power of most theoretical paradigms in the field of international relations. Here I offer the Bargaining Model of War...

Just war theory is a doctrine, also referred to as a tradition, of military ethics studied by military leaders, theologians, ethicists and policy makers. The purpose of the doctrine is to ensure war is morally justifiable through a series of criteria, all of which must be met for a war to be considered just. The criteria are split into two groups: "right to go to war" and "right conduct in war". The first concerns the morality of going to war, and the second the moral conduct within war. Recentl
